A GASOLINE DRUNK

A large employer of men in this vicinity makes the interesting and surprising statement that by far the greater part of idleness in this community is caused by "gasoline" and not by booze. His company has been keeping close tab on every idle man; when he does not appear for work an inquiry is made as to the cause or reason and a record is kept and from these records so obtained the figures for certain periods are tabulated. The three principal heads are Gasoline, Booze and Illness. Under the first head are put all those who lay off to take an automobile trip and who are outbidding in an auto during working hours. One factor in increasing the idleness on the part of auto owners is the practice of week end visits which necessitate the tourist leaving on Saturday and not returning until Monday. These general classifications are correct but it may be possible that booze is the compelling motive of many of the automobile trips; this is especially true of a certain class who prefer their ale while on rubber tires and another class who walk the straight and narrow path at home but play the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde stunt on the crossing of the first bridge. Nothing is more pleasing than the sight of a laboring man having a pleasure car in which he can take his family out for a ride in the evenings after the day's work is over; on the other hand, a pleasure ride for anyone between working hours is an example of a lack of patriotism and the indication of an entire lack of understanding of the duties of a loyal American.

The so-called temperance cranks will no doubt be much surprised and a little mad at the claim that gasoline results in more idleness among workers today than booze. They must consider however, that common sense is more highly developed today and that the average man has a little too much of it to drink as much booze as he used to drink. Besides, the figures take in only those who are employed and that element filling our poor houses, asylums and prisons through booze would no doubt tip the scales if considered.

GOVERNMENT NEEDS NURSES

An Important Meeting

The new task assigned to the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense, in Pennsylvania, that of recruiting 2870 young women to become student nurses in answer to the call of the Government, to supply the urgent need of increasing the trained nursing force of America, places a great responsibility upon the Chairman and the Executive Committee of the Council of National Defense in each County.

The Surgeon-General of the United States Army, the United States Public Health Service and the American Red Cross have asked the co-operation of the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense to lend their every effort to make this campaign a success, and we in Pennsylvania are endeavoring to go "Over the Top" in the registration of nurses to answer the Government's call.

"We urge our County Chairmen to call together all local Red Cross Chairmen, Heads of Hospitals, Directors of Nurses, and all other agencies, that they may consider ways and means by which the recruiting campaign for the United States Student Nurse Reserve, which begins July 29th, lasting until August 11th, may be conducted."

In answer to the above call a meeting will be held at the Nurses' Home of the Clearfield Hospital, Tuesday afternoon, July 23, at four o'clock, to discuss ways and means of meeting this need.

All persons interested are invited to attend.

MRS. ROLAND D. SWOPE,
Chairman.

FALL OF SOISSONS CELEBRATED BY A MONSTER PARADE

Last evening about five o'clock Clearfield residents were thrown into a spasm of joy and enthusiasm at the welcome news of the capture of the city of Soissons from the Germans who had taken this French city from the Allies at the beginning of the big German drive. Soissons is a city of good size and a very important railroad center connecting with Paris. The distance between the two towns is approximately fifty miles. The news arrived in Clearfield via the United Press wire in The Progress office about four thirty P. M. just after the evening edition had been printed and mailed but all clubs, hotels and gathering places of men were immediately switched on the telephone through the courtesy of the H. & C. operators and in this way the news quickly spread throughout the city and into surrounding towns. From that on The Progress office was a very busy place answering pleas for the confirmation of the glad tidings. Clearfield had been rather slow to awaken to the true significance of the American and French victory at Soissons but the fall of Soissons was the spark that kindled such a flame of enthusiasm that it was realized early in the evening that there must be some kind of a demonstration by which men could show their joy. This did not take any definite form until about 8:45 P. M. a boy appeared on the street carrying Old Glory and followed by another lad with a banner bearing the inscription, "Parade at 9:15. Get in line and whoop 'er up." Like magic the procession formed, headed by the Italian band who, by the way, are always around when needed, and the parade was in regular formation and ready to start. The Liberty Chorus came swinging up Market street amid the cheers of the increasing crowds and behind them hundreds of other men, women and children dropped in line. The marchers could be held quiet no longer and cheering they made their way down Second street. The new motorized fire apparatus promptly patriotic demonstrations ever witnessed in any town. Some time previous to the parade the Italian band gave a concert at the Court House square and Attorney A. Roy Chase was prevailed upon to address the crowd. Mr. Chase spoke for a short time only and closed by referring to the banner carried by the boy and at his request that all join in the parade all started to cheer lustily.

The enthusiasm of the crowd could not be dampened although the parade was of ample length to wear out the pedal extremities of the most patriotic and harder even on the vocal cords of the singers and shouters. The parade wound down Second street to Bridge, from Bridge to Nichols, Nichols to Turnpike, Turnpike to Market, thence to Square, thence to Walnut, thence to Third and back to the square by way of East Market. After the parade, the hundreds about the court house were led in a "sing" by County Musical Director Nightingale and other groups on the corners held their own little singfests to their heart's content. Jimmy Corrigan on this occasion showed that he had wonderful talent in this direction. The notes of song had no sooner died away when there were loud cries for a speech and it being noticed that Judge Bell was in the crowd, the Judge was by acclamation elected to make the speech. Prefacing his remarks by a well known reference to Kaiser Bill, the Judge launched into one of his characteristic and pointed speeches and had the crowd ready to work vengeance on any Kaiser lover. Long into the night the din and noise continued. Many a man is unable to speak above a whisper today but he is happy. The boys have gone "over the top" and put the first crimp in the Hindenburg line.

For the first time in the history of the Indiana Typographical union women will sit as delegates in the annual convention to be held this month at Kokoma.

—and now a popular priced roadster Completely equipped

In deciding the degree of motor car equipment which may be termed complete, only the purchaser's viewpoint counts.

Therefore, in saying that the new model Chevrolet "Four Ninety" Roadster, is completely equipped, we mean that it meets your demands in equipment essential to your comfort and convenience.

It has an electric starting and lighting system.

Its wheels are fitted with demountable rims, one extra rim is furnished. And a tire carrier is provided, fastened to the rear.

It has a storm-proof one-man top, with improved-type curtains that fold up into the top. Flaps on top of doors for protection of the body and finish, are likewise provided.

It has speedometer; pockets in the doors; tilted windshield—every feature of refinement that is commonly associated with cars selling far above Chevrolet prices.

We'd like nothing better than to demonstrate that the Chevrolet "Four Ninety" Roadster is all that we claim for it.

THE CUNARD LINER CARPATHIA VICTIM OF GERMAN SUB

London, July 19.—The British steamship Carpathia, 13,600 tons gross, was torpedoed in the Atlantic off the Irish coast on Wednesday. It was announced here today.

Three torpedoes were fired at the Carpathia and all hit the vessel. Splendid discipline was maintained. Five persons were killed when a torpedo exploded in the engine room. The remainder of those on board took to the lifeboats.

All the passengers were saved. They included thirty-six saloon passengers and twenty-one from the steerage.

The survivors were in the water two hours, the Exchange Telegraph company says when picked up by the steamship which brought them to port. The Carpathia disappeared quickly.

As the Carpathia was outward bound there were very few persons on board her.

How The Bayonet Lost a Great Battle

BAYONETS, first made at Bayonne, France, whence they get their name, to begin, were almost as dangerous to the army with them as to its foe.

Fashioned with a solid butt, to be jammed into the muzzle, it rendered a gun useless for firing.

The butt was soon changed to a socket, but not before the new fangled bayonet brought the English army to grief at Kinnelrankie.

The English soldier found the bayonet a poor fit, hard to get into his gun; and when he got it in, hard to get out. When he had to bayonet, he couldn't bayonet; when he had to shoot, he couldn't shoot.

GOODRICH SERVICE VALUE TIRES

The bayonet experiment gave the Scots the battle. To safeguard tire users against the chance of experiment, Goodrich Test Car Fleets put the road test to Goodrich Tire, to make them in word and deed SERVICE VALUE TIRES.

Goodrich sees but one tire value, SERVICE VALUE—

That is, what a tire proves it is worth to the motorist on his car and on the road, in comfort, economy, dependability, and durability.

All Goodrich skill and sincerity build up SERVICE VALUE, whether you get SILVERTOWN CORD TIRES, or BLACK SAFETY TREADS, you get SERVICE VALUE TIRES.

Gain mileage, and the security of knowing your tires will not fail, by demanding SERVICE VALUE TIRES.

OIL IS NEEDED ON STREETS

The Highway Department of Council is investigating the question of oiling of dirt streets to keep down the dust nuisance. This is certainly a move in the right direction. Tyone, Bellefonte and other Central Pennsylvania towns have been oiling their streets for years and are more than pleased with the results attained.

A little oil on Walnut, Cherry, Pine Fourth, Market and Park streets would save a deal of work, trouble and cost.

If all means let us have an attempt made to abate the dust nuisance. Give Park street a dose for a sample and save the good people living along that thoroughfare the usual dust clouds for the coming fair week.

Extra policeman Irman Moore has resigned his duties, being appointed more especially as extra man to handle auto drivers who violate the law, and it was over one of these cases that caused his resignation, he alleging that the authorities did not uphold his actions as they should have done. Moore was a good man in the right place and never lost an opportunity to enforce the law. Between Chief Clark and he it became almost safe for a child to cross the street alone, and that is saying a good deal. The people—those who have no cars especially—are really sorry of his resignation and hope that Council will readily see the needfulness of his returning to duty.

A big parade was pulled off last evening on account of yesterday's success of Allied arms. There must have been at least 1000 men, women and children in line of parade. Two brass bands and a drum corps also participated and added much to the vim and snap of the occasion. In only the few hours time in which to announce and arrange this great parade, it was a success and was carried out with considerable patriotism, rejoicing over the defeat of the Hun and his allies. Every one, male or female, born on American soil, should be proud of it, and doubly proud when reading the daily accounts of how the Sammy boys are taking huge slices of Switzer cheese from the banks of the Rhine. Rev. J. Max Lantz and the Hon. R. D. Swoope both delivered splendid, stirring addresses at the patriotic mass meeting after this parade disbanded. A substantial sum was collected for the Red Cross.

LIQUOR TARIFF A PUZZLE TO MAKERS OF REVENUE LAW

Washington, July 17.—The relation between war trust prohibition and war revenue is interesting members of the Ways and Means Committee in connection with the framing of a new Revenue Law. Today's discussion of the measure which was taken up behind closed doors, centered for a time about the beverage taxes. No conclusion was reached and none may be for some time.

By the time Congress returns from its recess and the Senate takes up again the Emergency Agriculture Appropriation Bill with its prohibition amendments, information will have been received from the Treasury on the revenue yielded from taxes on alcoholic beverages last year and available for the future. Roughly, the amount secured of $400,000,000. It is figured that $800,000,000 or $900,000,000 can be raised by doubling up the existing rates unless prohibitive measures are too drastic.

A dummy bill drawn up by Chairman Kitchin was before the Ways and Means Committee today to give the members some idea of what the new law must be. All existing revenue laws will be combined in the new bill, Chairman Kitchin said after the hearing.

BASEBALL DECLARED NON-PRODUCTIVE BY SECRETARY BAKER

Washington, July 19.—Baseball is a non-productive and non-essential industry. Ball players are hit by the "work or fight" order; they must shift into essential industries or lose such deferred classifications as they have received.

Such was the decision of Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, today, in the appeal of the Edward Ainsmith, catcher of the Washington team of the American league.

The decision is regarded as tantamount to the disbandment of organized baseball for the duration of the war.

While many ball players are beyond the draft age, it is said there are not enough to furnish the brand of baseball that the patrons demand; and baseball next year probably will be furnished largely by semi-professionals.

A "LIVE WIRE" COMMITTEE

In the write up of the flag raising at Faunce last Sunday we inadvertently omitted to mention the names of all the committee responsible for that highly successful occasion. This committee which worked so hard and succeeded in putting a lance securely on the map and list of 100 percent patriotic American communities was composed of Frank Everett, Newton Bauman, Arch Meyer and Clark Bloom. All did good work and there was certainly glory enough to go around. Our informant being a stranger in that region, happened to meet but two members of the committee and he was of the opinion that was the extent of the committee.

Mr. Everett is foreman for the Bickford Lumber Co. of Curwensville and it was largely through his efforts the excellent Crescent Band of the company was secured for the occasion.

The committee are all live wires and are equally deserving of credit in this case.

RELEASED FROM JAIL

Miss Julie Evans, the Decatur township woman, who was recently placed in jail with her husband charged with involuntary manslaughter following the death from neglect of their 12 years old son, was released from jail and taken to the county home on order of Judge Bell yesterday. BRITISH PRESS AND GENERAL MARCH WARN AGAINST OVER-ENTHUSIASM OVER VICTORY ACCOMPLISHED

NO SIGN OF LET UP ON THE DRIVE

American and French troops continued their great smash on the Aisne-Marne front today. Great numbers of fresh German reserves flowed into action on the entire front from Soissons to Chateau-Thierry. The Allies after successfully counter attacking the enemy, surprised them and turned the offensive into a defensive. Between Souain and Auberize, a few miles east of Rheims, the French and Americans advanced 1,000 yards beyond their original line late yesterday. Northwest of Mazil the Allies re-established their lines. The count of prisoners total 18,800 and was progressing. The advance over the whole front continued.

Pennsylvania troops are in the thick of the fighting in large numbers. The 28th division of the National Guard composed entirely of Pennsylvania troops is on the Aisne front.

Allied forces all along the western front except at points where there has been little fighting were awaiting orders today to advance. General Foch is expected momentarily to carry the battle to the enemy on the Flanders and the Picardy fronts and on the southern extremity of the rambling western line.

The Allies pushed forward to fresh gains in the face of determined resistance again today as they began the enveloping movement to trap the enemy in the pocket between Soissons and Rheims.

United Press dispatches from Fred S. Ferguson reported that the Germans are hastily bringing up guns and supplies. Roads northwest of Chateau-Thierry are jammed with trucks loaded with artillery, caissons and supplies. Every indication points to a retreat of some magnitude by von Hindenburg. Allied military men declared that he must seek other territory. Despite an evident slowness of the Allied offensive the smash was continuing with great success.

The Americans late yesterday took an important position east of Courvres over a wide front to the southward. Advances were made northeast of Chauton and east of Courchamps.

This success over a 16-mile front southwest of Soissons was reported in dispatches from Fred Ferguson filed at 11 o'clock last night.

The official French statement today, reporting the capture of Neuilly St. Front and fresh successes today south of the Marne, confirmed the Ferguson dispatches of last night.

The British press today warned against premature judgment of the importance of the Allied victory. It was pointed out that the Cambrai drive was followed by a German smash that costed from the British all that they had gained. British military men, however, feel that the German offensive plans are so badly smashed that it will be impossible to resume the drive toward Paris or in the direction of the channel ports. This is generally recognized as a great victory in itself.

The front between Aisne and the Marne and in the region of the attempted German drive of last Monday the fighting is most bitter. The elements of surprise that carried the French and Americans forward so rapidly on Thursday have developed a hand to hand battle. The battle is now man for man, gun against gun. In this the Americans and the French have shown decided superiority. German counter attacks in heavy force are failing everywhere and the mental state of the prisoners taken in the drive shows that the morale among the enemy has been damaging to his chances.

Americans who have been in action sneer at the lack of spirit among the Germans who are surrendering in great numbers and fighting when a bayonet is in sight. Only when they are in mass formation and fighting close together under the lash of their officers do they show any degree of bravery, the dispatches say. Officers of high rank taken by the Allies appear dejected and discouraged. They say that the whole German army is losing courage and that the war is lost to the Teutons and that nothing can save their cause. They are driven into action by higher-ups who believe that sometime, somehow, somewhere something is going to happen to save the German empire.

Paris, July 20, 1:15.—French and American troops continue to advance on a great part of the offensive front between Aisne and the Marne, the French war office announced today. The important town of Neuilly St. Front has been captured. South-

MANY CLEARFIELD BOYS IN SOISSONS ROUT OF TEUTONS

It is with a deep feeling of pride that we learn that many Clearfield and Clearfield county boys were on the fighting line around Soissons and in the big counter smash of Allied forces which has played such havoc with the Kaiser's "baby killers" in France.

The Second Division of the American Army commanded by Gen. Omar Bundy is engaged along the line where such glorious history was made the last two days, and six Pennsylvania National Guard Regiments have already been identified as participating. They are the First and Thirtieth, commanded by Col. Milard D. Brown; the Third and Tenth, commanded by Col. Henry Coulter, and the Sixth and Eighteenth, commanded by Col. Edward G. Shannon.

There are ten or twelve Clearfield boys and fifty or sixty DuBois boys in the old Tenth, while there are possibly forty Clearfield and Covington and Karthaus township boys in Co. L of the old Eighteenth. In addition to these the old Boal Machine Gun Company with another score of Clearfield's finest young men were in the thickest of the fray, which no doubt had considerable bearing on the Allied success. We are willing to wager it had.

Mr. and Mrs. Meile Shaw left today for their home in Stoneboro after spending the past two weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archey Shaw on William street.

of the Marne, Allied troops hurled the Germans back on a 15-mile front between Fossy and Oeuilly, gaining large ground toward the river.

"Between the Aisne and the Marne front yesterday evening and last night Franco-American forces advanced on a great part of the front," the communique said. "We reached Jivery (already reported in the hands of the Americans) and part of Melloy Wood east of Villers Helon (9 miles south of Soissons). South of the Marne we hurled the Germans back between Tossoy and Villers Helon and gained ground toward the river."

BRITISH MAKE NICE ADVANCE

London, July 20.—British forces in capturing Meteren yesterday advanced on a front of more than 2 miles, Field Marshal Haig reported today. As the result of yesterday's operations the line in the Meteren sector was advanced over a front of 4,000 yards, the statement said. The village of Meteren and the buildings known as Lewaton are now held by us. Our prisoners number 436.

JIM'S GRANDPA TIGHTENED UP

President of council Fletcher, speech at the impromptu overflow meeting following the regular festivities last night was an oratorical gem. When he closed there was no question about Jim's 25 per cent loyal Americanism. One time several hundred years back a couple of his great great granddaddies were born in one of the German provinces along the now detested Rhine and Jim made a real hit in telling of their experiences over there until to escape Prussian domination they finally fled to Pennsylvania.

The President of Council said that his family so far back as he had heard of was the very best of far from and it came to him that their Rhine turns bloom as he sees the state's great plants and the evergreen to the property lines of the Fletcher estate a robber Tom far from such happy life of the going thing and the very best of the world and the best of the world on day

TORPEDO SANK THE SAN DIEGO: BELIEF OF COMMANDER

Washington, July 20.—The United States armored cruiser San Diego was sunk yesterday ten miles off Fire Island, at the entrance of New York harbor.

Pending full investigation the department is understood to have sent out a warning to shipping to watch out for possible submarines.

Vessels of the coast patrol as an extra precaution have also been warned to be on their guard.

Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations, is understood to be of the opinion that the cruiser struck a mine, either an American mine or one sown by German submarines operating off the coast more than a month ago.

The following official announcement was issued:

"The armored cruiser San Diego was sunk ten miles southeast of Fire Island at 11:30 this morning. One officer and two boat crews were landed at life saving station No. 82 Long Island. Other survivors are in boats and four steamers are standing by."

"The San Diego is an armored cruiser of 13,600 tons displacement and carried a crew of 1,114 officers and men."

Washington July 20.—That the United States Cruiser San Diego was sunk by a torpedo is the "belief" expressed by the captain of the vessel in his report to the navy department today. Officials say there is no very clear evidence, however, that the ship was sunk by a torpedo.

Mrs. Ira Jay and sons Glen and Merle and daughters Arline and Ruth and Hazel left on morning train to spend several weeks visiting the former's parents at Everett, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gorman left today for Smoke Run where they will spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. William Twigg.

PROCRASTINATION ON OCCASION WILL AVOID MUCH

A good joke on somebody came to light yesterday when the Domestic Relations reporter was nosing thru the dusty archives in the court house and as it serves to emphasize the old saw "You never can tell about a woman," we are going to spring it on you, in order that you may see what the average poor devil is up against when he began to watch his wits against the female of the species.

Some time since a divorce action was begun in the Clearfield county courts in which the principals were more or less prominent personages of one of our neighboring towns. The action was begun by the wife who complained regarding the lavish manner in which hubby spread his affections about and over the community or the female portion thereof.

A voluminous sheaf of testimony established the wife's claim beyond all question and the commissioner appointed to hear the testimony and report form of decree, in filing his report stated there was nothing to do but grant the divorce prayed for. Judge Bell so ordered it. Now for the sob stuff.

Having proceeded that far the injured wife rested and failed to complete the legal separation by lifting the divorce. Enter one Daniel Cupid on his second visitation. After the Court had decided both parties were entitled to a second hitch the recreant husband was once more smitten by fair charms and the object of his affections being willing, the usual trip to the Recorder's office was made for a permit to weld the two loving hearts.

When the all-important question of the disposal of wife No. 1 came up the second-handed groom said he guessed she got a divorce. Under the Pennsylvania statutes no chances are taken by anybody but the contracting parties, when a marriage license is being contracted for, and Recorder Chase said he was "from Missouri." A trip to the Prothonotary's office was made where it was found that while a divorce had been granted many moons ago it had never been lifted and to date there was an embargo of just $106.50 on same.

The intending groom was not only game but had the coin, the proper records were made up, a legal looking document with a big red seal was attached and with that instrument clutched in his hand he beat it across the hall to "show" the Recorder. When convinced the transaction and the document were O. K. the legal permit to wed was issued and the happier but $107.50 poorer near-Benedict departed with his bride to be in search of a minister.

TODAY'S CASUALTY LIST

Washington, July 20.—General Pershing today reported 120 casualties including 1 killed in action and 37 severely wounded. Marine casualties totaled 7 including 3 killed in action and 45 severely wounded. Wm Johnson of Salisbury Indiana Co. was among the severely wounded.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. George Swartz, of Munson, that their son, Carl, a member of company K, Twenty third Infantry, who is with the American Expeditionary Force in France had been wounded in the shoulder by a machine gun bullet and at the time the letter was sent he was in a hospital.

Mike Berish writing to Munson folks stated that he did not think Carl Swartz is seriously wounded. Berish and Swartz had been together from the day of their enlistment. John A. Dennis of Chester Hill was also wounded. Berish wrote: "The events and regiment parties when he came of Vaux recently and the fighting at Chateau Thierry

CAPTURE OF NEUILLY ST. FRONT MAY LEAD TO OTHER SUCCESSES

By John de Gandt

Paris, July 20, 4:05 p. m.—French and American troops are clearing the highway from Chateau-Thierry to Rheims in action between Fossy and Oeuilly. It is apparent they will render Chalons Sur Marne untenable and force the Germans to re-cross the river. (The main road from Chateau-Thierry to Rheims runs eastward along the southern bank of the Marne to Dourman then crosses the river and extends northeast to Rheims.) Between the Aisne and the Marne the capture of Neuilly St. Front seriously threatens the enemy hold on Oulchy-Le-Chateau (8 miles eastward.)

AMERICANS IN BATTLE AND THEIR PROGRESS

By Carl D. Groat

Washington, July 20.—The American divisions engaged on the larger front of the present offensive are the First, Second, Third and Fourth Regulars and the Twenty Sixth and Twenty Eighth National Guards. The Forty Second National Guards are on the right flank—the Champagne—together with 3 colored regiments of the new Ninety Third Division.

Official confirmation of the American forces engaged in the great counter offensive was made by Chief of Staff March today in his weekly conference with press correspondents.

At the same time he revealed that the Maximum penetration of the French and Americans is 10 miles while the general penetration is 7 miles. Nearly 170,000 actual fighting Americans are engaged in the main drive.

The latest official dispatch received at the War Department today declared the fighting was still in progress with the capture of many guns and prisoners in "hopeful" numbers.

Incidentally General March said that we have now shipped 1,200,000 men abroad. Capture of prisoners, March said, closely followed press accounts. The latest official report concerning Soissons yesterday declared it to be under heavy bombardment. The Allies' counter offensive is not an encircling movement; it is aimed to cripple the supply line of the Germans running from Chateau-Thierry and was delivered on the flank because such a blow would cripple the Germans more than a push up from the south of the Marne. A push from below would merely give them an exit, not touching their supply line.

In his weekly talk with the Senate Military Committee today General March cautioned against over-optimism as the result of the spectacular Franco-American push. He declared that many difficulties are still ahead.

THE SINGER AND HIS VOICE FLED

Talk about the prophet being without honor in his own country, that prophet or any prophet has nothing on a volunteer singer with Jimmy Corrigan's "Weary Wabbles" last night. During or preceding the finale, one enthusiastic "old fellow," with a bird like tenor had been hitting high C with a vengeance during several numbers and had just craned his neck to cut loose on "Over There" when he chanced to catch his eye over the crowd and he and "Over There" so far as he was concerned quickly and quietly faded from the scene. That home audience was too much for him.

"SOMEWHERE IN SPAIN"

E. M. Shuter who recently staged the home talent skit entitled "Hello, Uncle Sam," at Philpsburg, is arranging to put on a playlet styled "Somewhere in Spain," under the auspices of the ladies of the Clearfield branch of the United States Navy league.

The promoter will require the services of at least two hundred young ladies and about fifty young men and volunteers are asked for. It is expected that the play will be given about the second week in September.

STOCK PRICES FIRM

New York July 20.—Prices on the stock market showed slight change over yesterday's close. United States steel was up 1/4 at 107 1/2. Reading was off 1/4 at 88 1/2 and Marine, preferred up to 38 1/2 up 1/4. The market closed dull.

GET THIS STRAIGHT

We have been asked many times regarding the difference in time between this country and the war zones "over there," and for the information of all inquirers we desire to say that there is a difference of five hours in the time between New York and Paris and London, while between New York and Berlin the difference is six hours.

For illustration when it is 12 o'clock noon here, it is 5 o'clock in the afternoon at London and Paris, and 6 o'clock p. m. in Berlin. Thus it will be seen the time on the western front in France is five hours ahead of ours.

While on this subject of difference in time we also desire to state that the matter of daylight saving, instituted in our country last spring was first suggested by a Mr. Wellman, an Englishman, who put the proposition up to parliament in the year 1907, but failed to become a law in England at that time.

In May of 1916 Germany adopted the plan and directed that all the clocks in Germany be moved forward one hour as an hygienic and economic measure. Within three months thereafter twelve other European countries had adopted the "daylight saving" plan.

Nova Scotia was the first to introduce the new departure on this side of the Atlantic and it has since become universal.

A GASOLINE DRUNK

A large employer of men in this vicinity makes the interesting and surprising statement that by far the greater part of idleness in this community is caused by "gasoline" and not by booze. His company has been keeping close tab on every idle man; when he does not appear for work an inquiry is made as to the cause or reason and a record is kept and from these records so obtained the figures for certain periods are tabulated. The three principal heads are Gasoline, Booze and Illness. Under the first head are put all those who lay off to take an automobile trip and who are outbidding in an auto during working hours. One factor in increasing the idleness on the part of auto owners is the practice of week end visits which necessitate the tourist leaving on Saturday and not returning until Monday. These general classifications are correct but it may be possible that booze is the compelling motive of many of the automobile trips; this is especially true of a certain class who prefer their ale while on rubber tires and another class who walk the straight and narrow path at home but play the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde stunt on the crossing of the first bridge. Nothing is more pleasing than the sight of a laboring man having a pleasure car in which he can take his family out for a ride in the evenings after the day's work is over; on the other hand, a pleasure ride for anyone between working hours is an example of a lack of patriotism and the indication of an entire lack of understanding of the duties of a loyal American.

The so-called temperance cranks will no doubt be much surprised and a little mad at the claim that gasoline results in more idleness among workers today than booze. They must consider however, that common sense is more highly developed today and that the average man has a little too much of it to drink as much booze as he used to drink. Besides, the figures take in only those who are employed and that element filling our poor houses, asylums and prisons through booze would no doubt tip the scales if considered.

GOVERNMENT NEEDS NURSES

An Important Meeting

The new task assigned to the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense, in Pennsylvania, that of recruiting 2870 young women to become student nurses in answer to the call of the Government, to supply the urgent need of increasing the trained nursing force of America, places a great responsibility upon the Chairman and the Executive Committee of the Council of National Defense in each County.

The Surgeon-General of the United States Army, the United States Public Health Service and the American Red Cross have asked the co-operation of the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense to lend their every effort to make this campaign a success, and we in Pennsylvania are endeavoring to go "Over the Top" in the registration of nurses to answer the Government's call.

"We urge our County Chairmen to call together all local Red Cross Chairmen, Heads of Hospitals, Directors of Nurses, and all other agencies, that they may consider ways and means by which the recruiting campaign for the United States Student Nurse Reserve, which begins July 29th, lasting until August 11th, may be conducted."

In answer to the above call a meeting will be held at the Nurses' Home of the Clearfield Hospital, Tuesday afternoon, July 23, at four o'clock, to discuss ways and means of meeting this need.

All persons interested are invited to attend.

FALL OF SOISSONS CELEBRATED BY A MONSTER PARADE

Last evening about five o'clock Clearfield residents were thrown into a spasm of joy and enthusiasm at the welcome news of the capture of the city of Soissons from the Germans who had taken this French city from the Allies at the beginning of the big German drive. Soissons is a city of good size and a very important railroad center connecting with Paris. The distance between the two towns is approximately fifty miles. The news arrived in Clearfield via the United Press wire in The Progress office about four thirty P. M. just after the evening edition had been printed and mailed but all clubs, hotels and gathering places of men were immediately switched on the telephone through the courtesy of the H. & C. operators and in this way the news quickly spread throughout the city and into surrounding towns. From that on The Progress office was a very busy place answering pleas for the confirmation of the glad tidings. Clearfield had been rather slow to awaken to the true significance of the American and French victory at Soissons but the fall of Soissons was the spark that kindled such a flame of enthusiasm that it was realized early in the evening that there must be some kind of a demonstration by which men could show their joy. This did not take any definite form until about 8:45 P. M. a boy appeared on the street carrying Old Glory and followed by another lad with a banner bearing the inscription, "Parade at 9:15. Get in line and whoop 'er up." Like magic the procession formed, headed by the Italian band who, by the way, are always around when needed, and the parade was in regular formation and ready to start. The Liberty Chorus came swinging up Market street amid the cheers of the increasing crowds and behind them hundreds of other men, women and children dropped in line. The marchers could be held quiet no longer and cheering they made their way down Second street. The new motorized fire apparatus promptly patriotic demonstrations ever witnessed in any town. Some time previous to the parade the Italian band gave a concert at the Court House square and Attorney A. Roy Chase was prevailed upon to address the crowd. Mr. Chase spoke for a short time only and closed by referring to the banner carried by the boy and at his request that all join in the parade all started to cheer lustily.

The enthusiasm of the crowd could not be dampened although the parade was of ample length to wear out the pedal extremities of the most patriotic and harder even on the vocal cords of the singers and shouters. The parade wound down Second street to Bridge, from Bridge to Nichols, Nichols to Turnpike, Turnpike to Market, thence to Square, thence to Walnut, thence to Third and back to the square by way of East Market. After the parade, the hundreds about the court house were led in a "sing" by County Musical Director Nightingale and other groups on the corners held their own little singfests to their heart's content. Jimmy Corrigan on this occasion showed that he had wonderful talent in this direction. The notes of song had no sooner died away when there were loud cries for a speech and it being noticed that Judge Bell was in the crowd, the Judge was by acclamation elected to make the speech. Prefacing his remarks by a well known reference to Kaiser Bill, the Judge launched into one of his characteristic and pointed speeches and had the crowd ready to work vengeance on any Kaiser lover. Long into the night the din and noise continued. Many a man is unable to speak above a whisper today but he is happy. The boys have gone "over the top" and put the first crimp in the Hindenburg line.

For the first time in the history of the Indiana Typographical union women will sit as delegates in the annual convention to be held this month at Kokoma.

—and now a popular priced roadster Completely equipped

In deciding the degree of motor car equipment which may be termed complete, only the purchaser's viewpoint counts.

Therefore, in saying that the new model Chevrolet "Four Ninety" Roadster, is completely equipped, we mean that it meets your demands in equipment essential to your comfort and convenience.

It has an electric starting and lighting system.

Its wheels are fitted with demountable rims, one extra rim is furnished. And a tire carrier is provided, fastened to the rear.

It has a storm-proof one-man top, with improved-type curtains that fold up into the top. Flaps on top of doors for protection of the body and finish, are likewise provided.

It has speedometer; pockets in the doors; tilted windshield—every feature of refinement that is commonly associated with cars selling far above Chevrolet prices.

We'd like nothing better than to demonstrate that the Chevrolet "Four Ninety" Roadster is all that we claim for it.

THE CUNARD LINER CARPATHIA VICTIM OF GERMAN SUB

London, July 19.—The British steamship Carpathia, 13,600 tons gross, was torpedoed in the Atlantic off the Irish coast on Wednesday. It was announced here today.

Three torpedoes were fired at the Carpathia and all hit the vessel. Splendid discipline was maintained. Five persons were killed when a torpedo exploded in the engine room. The remainder of those on board took to the lifeboats.

All the passengers were saved. They included thirty-six saloon passengers and twenty-one from the steerage.

The survivors were in the water two hours, the Exchange Telegraph company says when picked up by the steamship which brought them to port. The Carpathia disappeared quickly.

As the Carpathia was outward bound there were very few persons on board her.

How The Bayonet Lost a Great Battle

BAYONETS, first made at Bayonne, France, whence they get their name, to begin, were almost as dangerous to the army with them as to its foe.

Fashioned with a solid butt, to be jammed into the muzzle, it rendered a gun useless for firing.

The butt was soon changed to a socket, but not before the new fangled bayonet brought the English army to grief at Kinnelrankie.

The English soldier found the bayonet a poor fit, hard to get into his gun; and when he got it in, hard to get out. When he had to bayonet, he couldn't bayonet; when he had to shoot, he couldn't shoot.

GOODRICH SERVICE VALUE TIRES

The bayonet experiment gave the Scots the battle. To safeguard tire users against the chance of experiment, Goodrich Test Car Fleets put the road test to Goodrich Tire, to make them in word and deed SERVICE VALUE TIRES.

Goodrich sees but one tire value, SERVICE VALUE—

That is, what a tire proves it is worth to the motorist on his car and on the road, in comfort, economy, dependability, and durability.

All Goodrich skill and sincerity build up SERVICE VALUE, whether you get SILVERTOWN CORD TIRES, or BLACK SAFETY TREADS, you get SERVICE VALUE TIRES.

Gain mileage, and the security of knowing your tires will not fail, by demanding SERVICE VALUE TIRES.

OIL IS NEEDED ON STREETS

The Highway Department of Council is investigating the question of oiling of dirt streets to keep down the dust nuisance. This is certainly a move in the right direction. Tyone, Bellefonte and other Central Pennsylvania towns have been oiling their streets for years and are more than pleased with the results attained.

A little oil on Walnut, Cherry, Pine Fourth, Market and Park streets would save a deal of work, trouble and cost.

If all means let us have an attempt made to abate the dust nuisance. Give Park street a dose for a sample and save the good people living along that thoroughfare the usual dust clouds for the coming fair week.

To Keep Blankets Clean and Fluffy

Wash them with 20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips. The Borax in the Chips takes out every particle of dirt without rubbing; and leaves them like new. Will not shrink or injure woolens in any way. And the antiseptic properties of the Borax cleanse hygienically.

20 MULE TEAM BORAX SOAP CHIPS

should be used in this way for best results: Make a Soap Jelly by dissolving three tablespoonfuls of 20 Mule Team Borax Chips in a quart of boiling water. Add this to lukewarm wash water and work the blankets in this solution without rubbing. Rinse in warm water, pull out and shake well. An 8 oz. package of 20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips equals 25c worth of ordinary laundry soap.

AT ALL DEALERS

It's the Borax with the soap that does the work.

J. R. Bixler announces that his Herald has entered upon its third volume. That he has made a success and readable town paper of it goes without comment to the contrary. May the Herald still increase its propensity for "sifting for news" and printing it in such a readable manner as to please all, no matter what walk of life they may be. Here's "how," Bixler.

Extra policeman Irman Moore has resigned his duties, being appointed more especially as extra man to handle auto drivers who violate the law, and it was over one of these cases that caused his resignation, he alleging that the authorities did not uphold his actions as they should have done. Moore was a good man in the right place and never lost an opportunity to enforce the law. Between Chief Clark and he it became almost safe for a child to cross the street alone, and that is saying a good deal. The people—those who have no cars especially—are really sorry of his resignation and hope that Council will readily see the needfulness of his returning to duty.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Curwensville Cemetery company was held one day this week and a change in some of the officers made. H. M. Irvin was elected president, vice L. C. She has successfully completed the pianoforte course at America's oldest and largest school of music, having had as her principal instructor Chas. F. Dennee, Boston pianist and composer of international reputation. During her course, Miss McClure has made several appearances at student concerts and recitals. Miss McClure is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. P. McClure of this place. She has visited here frequently and has a host of friends who warmly congratulated her on her success.

A big parade was pulled off last evening on account of yesterday's success of Allied arms. There must have been at least 1000 men, women and children in line of parade. Two brass bands and a drum corps also participated and added much to the vim and snap of the occasion. In only the few hours time in which to announce and arrange this great parade, it was a success and was carried out with considerable patriotism, rejoicing over the defeat of the Hun and his allies. Every one, male or female, born on American soil, should be proud of it, and doubly proud when reading the daily accounts of how the Sammy boys are taking huge slices of Switzer cheese from the banks of the Rhine. Rev. J. Max Lantz and the Hon. R. D. Swoope both delivered splendid, stirring addresses at the patriotic mass meeting after this parade disbanded. A substantial sum was collected for the Red Cross.

LIQUOR TARIFF A PUZZLE TO MAKERS OF REVENUE LAW

Washington, July 17.—The relation between war trust prohibition and war revenue is interesting members of the Ways and Means Committee in connection with the framing of a new Revenue Law. Today's discussion of the measure which was taken up behind closed doors, centered for a time about the beverage taxes. No conclusion was reached and none may be for some time.

By the time Congress returns from its recess and the Senate takes up again the Emergency Agriculture Appropriation Bill with its prohibition amendments, information will have been received from the Treasury on the revenue yielded from taxes on alcoholic beverages last year and available for the future. Roughly, the amount secured of $400,000,000. It is figured that $800,000,000 or $900,000,000 can be raised by doubling up the existing rates unless prohibitive measures are too drastic.

A dummy bill drawn up by Chairman Kitchin was before the Ways and Means Committee today to give the members some idea of what the new law must be. All existing revenue laws will be combined in the new bill, Chairman Kitchin said after the hearing.

BASEBALL DECLARED NON-PRODUCTIVE BY SECRETARY BAKER

Washington, July 19.—Baseball is a non-productive and non-essential industry. Ball players are hit by the "work or fight" order; they must shift into essential industries or lose such deferred classifications as they have received.

Such was the decision of Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, today, in the appeal of the Edward Ainsmith, catcher of the Washington team of the American league.

The decision is regarded as tantamount to the disbandment of organized baseball for the duration of the war.

While many ball players are beyond the draft age, it is said there are not enough to furnish the brand of baseball that the patrons demand; and baseball next year probably will be furnished largely by semi-professionals.

A "LIVE WIRE" COMMITTEE

In the write up of the flag raising at Faunce last Sunday we inadvertently omitted to mention the names of all the committee responsible for that highly successful occasion. This committee which worked so hard and succeeded in putting Faunce securely on the map and list of 100 percent patriotic American communities was composed of Frank Everett, Newton Bauman, Arch Meyer and Clark Bloom. All did good work and there was certainly glory enough to go around. Our informant being a stranger in that region, happened to meet but two members of the committee and he was of the opinion that was the extent of the committee.

Mr. Everett is foreman for the Bickford Lumber Co., of Curwensville and it was largely through his efforts the excellent Crescent Band of the company was secured for the occasion.

The committee are all live wires and are equally deserving of credit in this case.

RELEASED FROM JAIL

Miss Julie Evans, the Decatur township woman, who was recently placed in jail with her husband charged with involuntary manslaughter following the death from neglect of their 12 years old son, was released from jail and taken to the county home on order of Judge Bell yesterday. District Attorney Arnold agreed to the removal because of the fact that the woman is the mother of a baby but three weeks old and the jail accommodations were inadequate for their comfort and welfare.

ENTERTAIN SOLDIER

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smeal entertained at their home on Williams street last evening about 25 young people in honor of their nephew, Ernest Erhard, of Conventville, who is home on a furlough from Texas.

The affair was a true military party. House and lawn being beautifully decorated in red, white and blue. The evening was spent in playing games on the lawn and enjoying the fine music rendered by Mrs. Myra Shaw and William Brown. At a late hour a delicious luncheon was served at which everybody joined in singing the Star Spangled Banner. The party then dissolved wishing Mr. Erhard the best of luck and God speed.
